TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Depending on your payment structure, one month's or term's written notice is required if you wish to discontinue your private lessons and group classes. We reserve the right to stop lessons if the fees have not been paid as per the agreement.

Please give at least 48 hours' notice if you will miss a private class. If you miss a private class due to illness and you did not give sufficient notice, but you have a doctor's note, you may still catch up that class on another day that suits your teacher. If you miss a private class due to any other reason without sufficient notice, your class will be forfeited and you will need to pay for the class.

We reserve the right to withhold your examination results due to outstanding fees, which may include disciplinary action.

All examination fees that are paid to the international societies are for your own pocket and not refundable.

We reserve the right to withdraw you from an examination if we deem that you are not yet ready for the required standards of the examinations, or if you have not attended enough of your classes.

Under no circumstances may you contact any of the international societies for your examination results or make direct contact with the persons who examined you.

Should BBATA close due to circumstances beyond our control (including epidemics, riots or national crisis's) we will not be liable to refund any fees.

We will not be held liable for any injury sustained on the BBATA premises or any venue occupied by BBATA for training or entertainment purposes.

BBATA reserves the right to change times or adapt the class structures at any given time.

All classes and activities that you participate in are at your own risk. We are not responsible for any injuries, loss or theft of property.

At the year end, if no month or term's notice is given, your contract will be automatically be renewed for the following year.

BBATA may, in its sole discretion, change this agreement or any part thereof at any time without notice.
